CANCERS CAN BE CURED.

DR. L. CHASE,

(LATE OF PORTLAND),

THE CELEBRATED

INDIANAPOLIS CANCER & TUMOR DOCTOR,

HAVING purchased the residence of H. A. Wood, 34 Hammond Street, Bangor, Maine, would be happy to be consulted by all who are afflicted with Cancers, Cancer Humors, Tumors, Scrofula, Leprosy, Salt Rheum, Fits, Neuralgia, Bronchial Affections, Catarrh, Rheumatism, Sick Headache, Liver Diseases, Female Weaknesses, Piles, Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Diseases of the Kidneys, Stiff Joints, Gravel, Diabetes, &c., &c.

Dr. Chase has practiced in his profession for sixteen years, and in that time has spent two years in Florida and Cuba, for the purpose of gaining a correct knowledge of the most efficient remedies used by the various tribes of Indians of that country, and by great expense has gained many valuable secrets which have heretofore been unknown to the world.

In Cancer he claims superiority over all other Physicians of the age, for he never fails to perform a cure when taken in a proper stage.

His mode of curing Cancers is by the application of a plaster, which is strictly vegetable, and will have no effect upon the healthy flesh; and in no case use a knife, as does Dr. Greene, of Boston.

He also boldly asserts that he can tell every individual their disease and location of their pains, and describe their feelings in almost every case, more minutely than they can possibly if present.

Dr. Chase is not a Clairvoyant, but conducts his examinations on a strictly scientific principle, and will challenge any professed medium for a test examination.

Office hours from 9 A.M. to 8 P.M. Examinations free. Office at residence No. 34 Hammond Street.

THE MOST POPULAR

IN NEW ENGLAND.

The Model Cook for Wood or Coal.

THIS STOVE has now been before the public for five years, and thoroughly tested in a prospectus and to say that no stove yet made has given equal satisfaction is speaking within the bounds of truth, while it is no disparagement to other Stoves.

THAT THE MODEL COOK will bake more work with a given amount of fuel than any other Stove made, is a fixed fact.

THE MODEL COOK will do more work for the reason that it has full one-third more oven room than any other stove, is more economical for the reason that the fire is made between the ovens. No heat is lost.

A more peculiar feature of the Model Cook is the addition of a Ventilating Roasting Oven, so arranged that it can be used separately for roasting, or in connection with the large oven for baking. By this process roasting and baking are entirely separated.

This permanent extension gives an additional boiler hole and other room on the top of the stove, while at the same time the stove occupies no more room on the floor than ordinary stoves.

In fact THE MODEL COOKS are acknowledged by all who have used them to be

THE MOST PERFECT,
THE MOST ECONOMICAL,
THE MOST CONVENIENT
THE MOST BEAUTIFUL,
AND THE

Most Durable Stove in the World!

THE MODEL COOKS are manufactured at the rate of 5000 per year, and the demand for them is constantly increasing.

EVERY MODEL COOK sold, is warranted to give entire satisfaction in all respects, or the stove will be taken back and the full price refunded.

This stove is more extensively in use in New England for coal than any other, and gives the best satisfaction. We are the exclusive agents for this Stove in Bangor, and will be pleased to show to any who will call.

FELLOWS' ORIGINAL

WORM LOZENGES.

WE can with confidence point to FELLOWS' WORM LOZENGES as the most perfect remedy for those troublesome pests, INTESTINAL WORMS.

After years of careful experiment, success has crowned our efforts, and we now offer to the world a confection without a single fault, being safe, convenient effectual and pleasant. No injurious result can occur, let them be used in whatever quantity. Not a particle of calomel enters their composition. They may be used without further preparation, and at any time. Children will eagerly devour all you give them, and ask for more. They never fail in expelling Worms from their dwelling-place, and they will always strengthen the weak and emaciated, even when health is not afflicted with worms.

Various remedies have from time to time been recommended, such as calomel, oil of wormseed, turpentine, &c., producing dangerous and sometimes fatal consequences. After much research, study and experiments, embracing several years, the proprietors of FELLOWS' WORM LOZENGES have succeeded in producing this remedy, free from all objections, and positively safe, pleasant and effectual. They do not kill the worms, but act by making their dwelling-place disagreeable to them. In order to secure possession of the genuine of these Lozenges, the signature of Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer, is annexed.

"I have analyzed the WORM LOZENGES prepared by Messrs. FELLOWS & CO., and find that they are free from mercury and other metallic or mineral matter. These Lozenges are skillfully compounded, pleasant to the taste, safe, yet sure and efficacious in their action. Respectfully, A. A. HAYES, M.D.

Assayer to the State of Maine."

Price 25 cents per Box: Five for $1.

TO MILL OWNERS.

Hoisting & Canting Machine,

FOR HOISTING LUMBER

Upon Gang Edger Tables.

BY this machine lumber is hoisted upon EDGER TABLES, to be edged, after passing through the Gang Sawers, by water or steam power, thereby saving all the hard lifting labor of edgers, as well known so serious in saw mills.

Two men will edge from two to three thousand feet more lumber in a day with, than without, and do it much easier.

Whether sawing large or small lumber, it hoists the largest as well as the smallest sticks quicker than can be done by hand, and with no more effort than to handle one inch boards. In fact this machine hoists the heaviest timber with ease and rapidity, that is surprising and gratifying to see.

A greater labor saving machine has not been invented in a century, the value of which can never be computed in dollars and cents.

Every one who pays his money for this machine will receive back again its entire cost by its use in one season, and in most cases in one half that time.

They are strong and durable machines, and will stand constant use for years.

THE CENTRAL

Pacific R. R. Co.,

Having Completed, Equipped and put in operation nearly One Hundred Miles of their Road, from Sacramento, California, to within 12 Miles of the summit of the Sierra Nevada Mountains, continue to offer for sale, through us, their issued in conformity with the Acts of Congress and the laws of the State of California, upon the division of their Road located in the State of California, and extending one hundred and fifty-six miles from Sacramento City to the Eastern State line.

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS,

These Bonds have Thirty Years to run from July 1, 1866, and are secured by a

FIRST MORTGAGE,

Constituting an absolute prior lien on the portion of Road above named, with all the Rights, Franchises, Equipments, &c., pertaining thereto.

The amount of these First Mortgage Bonds to be issued per mile is limited by law to the amount of United States Bonds allowed and issued to aid the construction of the Road, and the Mortgage by which they are secured is DECLARED BY ACT OF CONGRESS TO CONSTITUTE A LIEN PRIOR AND SUPERIOR TO THAT OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT.

Interest at the rate of Six per cent. per Annum, payable Semi-Annually, on the first days of January and July.

Principal and Interest payable in

UNITED STATES GOLD COIN,

in the City of New York.

The price of the Bonds is fixed for the present at 95 per cent., and accrued interest from January 1st in Currency, the Company reserving the right to advance the price whenever it is their interest to do so. The Road forms the Western part of the

MAIN TRUNK

OF THE

Great National Pacific Railroad, authorized, adopted and aided by

The United States Government.

It runs through the heart of the richest and most populous section of the State of California, connecting the

Extensive Mining Regions of Nevada, Utah and Idaho

With Sacramento and the Pacific Coast, from whence their supplies must be drawn; and the Earnings of the portion already running are very heavy, and largely in excess of the interest upon the Company's Bonds.

Having been for some time familiar with the operations of the Central Pacific Railroad Company, we are satisfied that they are conducted with rare ability and prudence, and that the energetic and economical management of the Company's affairs entitles them to the confidence of Capitalists and of the public. We have carefully investigated the progress, resources, and prospects of the Road, and have the fullest confidence in its success, as to the value and stability of the Company's securities. The attention of Trustees of Estates, Institutions, and individuals desiring a long, safe and remunerative investment, is especially invited to these First Mortgage Bonds.

The Assumption of Town Debts—Opinion of the Supreme Court.

The following is the opinion of the Supreme Court of Maine, (referred to in our last,) upon the constitutionality of the assumption by the State, of the war debt, of the towns. It was drawn by Chief Justice Appleton, and is addressed to Governor Chamberlain.

BANGOR Feb. 18, 1867

SIR:—The undersigned, Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court, have the honor to submit the following answer to the inquiry contained in your communication of Feb. 16th.

Numerous amendments to the original Constitution of the State have been adopted, in accordance with its provisions. The sixth amendment, in pursuance of the resolve of July 20, 1847, is in these words:

ARTICLE 6. "The credit of the State shall not be directly or indirectly loaned, in any case. The Legislature shall not create any debt or debts, liability or liabilities, in behalf of the State, which shall singly or in the aggregate with previous debts and liabilities hereafter incurred at any one time, exceed three hundred thousand dollars, except to suppress insurrection, to repel invasion, or for purposes of war; but this amendment shall not be construed to refer to any money that has been or that may be deposited with the State by the government of the United States, or to any fund which the State shall hold in trust for any Indian Tribe."

Prior to this amendment, there was no constitutional limitation to the power of the Legislature to create debts in behalf of the State. The general design was to provide a perpetual check against rashness or improvidence. "The credit of the State shall not be directly or indirectly loaned in any case." This indicates the great purpose of the amendment. But as there may be occasions for indebtedness for State purposes, authority is given to create a debt to the amount of three hundred thousand dollars. Indebtedness on the part of the State is limited to this amount. The object of the amendment cannot be misunderstood. Its binding force cannot be denied. It is the calm and deliberate expression of the popular will, embodied in the solemn form of a constitutional restriction upon legislative action.

But it was obvious that exigencies might occur, that pressing necessities might arise, when the safety and well being of the State would require that this limitation should be disregarded. The amendment, therefore, is made subject to the following exceptions: "to suppress insurrection, to repel invasion, or suppress insurrection, or repel invasion, for the purposes of war." These exceptions relate to the general duties of government. They authorize the Legislature to create a debt, when necessary to discharge obligations arising under the Constitution of the United States; or to protect its own citizens in the full enjoyment of life, liberty, and happiness.

The debt must be created by the State. It must be to provide for the special objects distinctly set forth in the exceptions in the sixth amendment, and for none other, whenever the constitutional limit has already been exceeded. These are "to suppress insurrection, to repel invasion, or for purposes of war,"—great national emergencies requiring prompt and energetic action. Insurrection must exist, else it cannot be suppressed.—The public enemy must have invaded the territory of the State or nation, else he cannot be repelled. There must be a state of war imminent or existing, else there can be no purposes of war. The exception looks to the present—insurrection, invasion, or war, as actual existing or impending. The government of the United States can rightfully call on the State in any of these contingencies, and it is the duty of the State to respond to the call. The existence of these conditions alone gives the Legislature a right to create a debt exceeding in amount the constitutional limitation. The debt thus created must be to meet these exigencies, and not to pay the existing and outstanding li

The Connecticut Election.

As was to be expected, the rarity of a Democratic success in a northern election has caused some frantic demonstrations on the part of our metal le friends, who, in the exuberance of a fancy made particularly rosy by an unwonted superabundance of liquid inspiration, are imagining that the buying up of five or six hundred votes or so in Connecticut affords a certain indication that the reign of "radicalism" is over in the Union—that the great Republican party of the nation, founded upon the immutable rock of Equal Rights, is going to eternal smash—and that the sober (?) second thought of "democrat o" ideas is about to return! Oh, no, Messieurs the Copperheads; not so fast. You may not flatter yourselves with so absurd an idea upon so slender a foundation. Instead of going to ruin at present, to accommodate you, the Republican party has just arrived at its period of extension, into the regions from which it has hitherto been excluded by the darkness of that slavery of mind and body, and intolerance of good, which you call "democracy"—regions which in the future are to yield their share of Republican fruits, and which will amply offset all the small gains to democracy which you may be able to make in the North, in such States as Connecticut, where Republicans still behind the principles of their party may yet be found. The Republican party must endure so long as there is work for it to do in securing and extending the rights of the people. The time has gone by when great national political parties can be formed and maintained upon transitory questions of finance, of taxation, or of tariffs, as in former years. The nation has advanced to a higher plane; and our differences must now be those of higher principles. There will always be assailants of equal rights, and those who aim at subverting civil and religious liberty, and re-establishing the old order of things in some new shape—and what organization can there be better adapted to defend liberty and advance its banners than the Republican? Mutations and partial revulsions there may and must be, as in all other worldly things; but we cannot doubt that the party, if true to principle, will maintain its general ascendency in the country, at least until freedom is fully and firmly established throughout the Union.

But to return to the Connecticut election. We give, as we only intended to do, a few of the comments of the press upon the future result in that State:

From the Boston Advertiser

There are some indications that the result of the Connecticut election may be made the text of exhortations to the southern people to wait for that "reaction" which their democratic friends here have been promising them these six years past. It will be an evil day for the South when its people are thus persuaded that a partial democratic success, in a State which in the very heat of northern enthusiasm was closely divided, betokens any wavering of northern sentiment. But the question whether this argument for delay and recreancy will be used, or not, depend upon the discretion or, we fear, the good faith of the usual advisers of the South; but on the contrary, it depends solely upon their estimate of the chances of once more blinding a people who have been deceived a thousand times already.

From the Boston Journal:

We need not say that we regret the result. Its first announcement may have a prejudicial effect upon the reconstruction movements now springing up all over the South. Sinister agitators will represent it as the beginning of a great reaction, even in New England, and may urge the southern people to pause and wait for Democratic restoration at the North. But further observation will show the falsity of all such hopes. It will be seen that the Republican State which has faltered is not one of those bearing the most advanced record, but, on the contrary, the only one in New England, which has hesitated to apply the impartial principles of the Republican creed. Had the colored Republicans of Connecticut been allowed to vote, not only would this reverse have been avoided, but the organization would have been stronger and braver. But it will be seen that the small Democratic gains made in this always closely contested State are not found to any extent in the country towns, where disinterested changes of opinion are most likely to be first observed, but in the large cities and manufacturing places, where corrupting influences prevail in an extraordinary degree. All hope, therefore, of the national resuscitation of the Democratic party, based on this Connecticut election, must prove feeble and fleeting.

From the Washington Union—(said to reflect President Johnson's feelings):

Let there be no further compromise with wrong—no bartering of places with any of our arch enemies. Put none but friends of the administration on guard. Frown down any efforts to mix oil and water. We want no milksops in this crisis. He that is not for us is against us. The Democrat who advises combination merely to get place must be confounded. The reaction, long hoped for, has commenced, and God help those who stand in the way of the huge, moving political avalanche! The President must and will stand by his friends. If one, or twenty, steadfast men are rejected by the Senate, sent in the twenty-first, and keep sending them in, until the crack of doom. The man, be he Senator or member of the House of Representatives, professing to be a Democrat, who counsels any other policy or course, is an enemy, and should be so openly, unsparingly, declared.

From the New York Post:

The Republicans of Connecticut have lost the election, but they can afford to lose it.—They planted themselves upon the ground of universal suffrage. We trust they will not budge an inch from that platform. Let them stick to it, and seriously educate the people up to it. Connecticut is notorious as a negro-hating State. Schools for the education of negro children have been broken up there, and a year or two ago a negro was mobbed there, and some Dogberry, whose name we have forgotten, advised the negro to leave the State. Ignorant and inhuman prejudices have therefore to be met and overcome, and Gov. Hawley and his party need not be discouraged at one defeat. It is their mission to train the people of the State to liberal and sound views, to a love for equal justice, and they will remember, we trust, that, occupying right and just ground, their defeat now ought only to be the precursor of an enduring victory.

From the New York Tribune:

The influence of this copperhead victory, so far as it is felt at all outside of the State itself, will be most harmful at the South. It may lead by retard to some degree the growth and healing rapid, of a healthy political sentiment, and hinder reconstruction on a true basis of the existing law. [illegible]

A Southern exchange says that a plantation in Wilcox county, Alabama, of from fifteen hundred to two thousand acres, which before the war produced from eight thousand to ten thousand bushels of corn, and from three hundred and fifty to five hundred bales of cotton, was rented the other day for one hundred and thirty dollars.—[Whig.

In the above The Whig publishes what six years of Radical Abolition rule has done for one plantation in Alabama.—[Democrat.

Not so. It is merely the result of what the plantation folks have done for themselves. When they concluded, under advice of our neighbor, to try their strength against the Union, and pitched into Fort Sumter, under the assurance that Emory and others at the North would be courageous enough to march to their aid, they simply "did" for themselves. It was then—in that single day—by their own and Emory's act—that that Alabama plantation went down in value from a hundred thousand dollars to a hundred.

The Democrat of this week brings out, in honor of a copperhead victory, all the flags, roosters and cannon which it failed to display for Union victories during the war.—When Lee surrendered to our brave boys in blue that paper was silent and mournful as the grave. When Connecticut temporarily surrenders to the men who mourned for Lee, The Democrat is in a blaze of—shall we call it glory, or what? At the Confederate X Roads it would be Deacon Pegram's whiskey.

SOUTH CAROLINA. General Sickles, in reply to an address presented to him by the merchants of Charleston, said: "The general interests and prosperity of North and South Carolina have been the object of my earnest solicitude since I have been in command of this department, and what I have done in this regard in the past I will continue to do in the future. The solution of the present political difficulties rests with the citizens themselves. The military authorities will not interfere as partisans in political movements or organizations. We will endeavor in partially and fairly to promote the reorganization of the civil government in the two States. Ample protection will be given to life, liberty and property.—In conclusion, gentlemen, be assured that I shall always be glad to hear any expressions of your sentiments, and to comply with your suggestions so far as may comport with my sense of duty."

THE PUBLIC DEBT. A Washington dispatch says that the monthly statement of the public debt will not be ready for two or three days yet. It will make a favorable exhibit of the finances of the Government, showing a reduction of from $12,000,000 to $20,000,000 in the public debt. It will show that there are about $114,000,000 of gold in the Treasury. There has been no reduction in the volume of currency, the Secretary of the Treasury not deeming it expedient to retire the $4,000,000 for the month just closed. This will make three months that the Secretary has not exercised his authority in retiring the $4,000,000 per month which the law gives him. He has been governed in this matter by financial interests.

At the meeting of the Boston Social Science Association, a paper was read by President Sears of Brown University in which he treated of the necessity for more military education, which shall supply to the country 300 or 400 graduates annually, instead of the 50 which West Point is able to furnish. He advocated the engrafting of military professorships to the present collegiate course of education, the professor to be an army officer of high rank, and his assistant to come from recent West Point graduates.

THE WESTERN ELECTIONS. The elections held at the West contrast well with the result in Connecticut. The State election of Michigan, on Monday, was easily carried by the Republicans, who are generally successful throughout the State. In Columbus Ohio, the mayoralty election shows a Republican gain of over 500. In Cincinnati the Republicans carried all before them.

A Detective has found at Gilmanton, N. H., a large amount of stolen dry goods and clothing, taken by a dishonest clerk named Durrell, from a store in Lowell, Mass. The peculation is thought to have extended over several years, and to have caused the firm to go into insolvency. Durrell and his brother, and some others of the family, are under a rest.

A paper published in Manilla states that when the hull of the Spanish iron-clad Numancia was cleaned at Otahite, the workmen found a large piece of electric wire around the screw, which had been attached to one of the torpedoes in the harbor of Callao. Had the wire performed the duty for which it was intended, there would probably be no Numancia in existence now.

A merchant of Boston, when in Lyons, France, was so much pleased with the fountain which stands in front of the Hotel de Ville, that he was induced to order its counterpart for Boston Common. It is in bronze, twenty-five feet high, and exceedingly beautiful. The colossal figures at the base are splendid specimens of art. It is now on its way.

The Dubuque Times says that, "while in this city, John B. Gough received a letter from an English gentleman, who offered him $250 per night, for one year's services in London—but one lecture to be given in a week, and the series to be confined entirely to the metropolis. Besides the money offer, the correspondent also tenders Mr. Gough a well furnished house in the most respectable portion of the city, free of rent for the year.

AN ATTEMPT TO NULLIFY THE RECONSTRUCTION ACT, BY A SUPREME COURT DECISION. A Washington despatch says:

An attempt is being made to deny the statement that the Mississippi unrepentant rebels hope to contest the legality of the reconstruction act in the Supreme Court. It is, however, positively asserted in the Mississippi papers that Judge Sharkey telegraphed to Rev. Humphreys for permission to file a bill in the name of the State of Mississippi to begin all proceedings to subject the people of that State to military rule under the recent act of Congress, and that the Governor immediately replied, giving the desired authority. It is also stated that the Governor subsequently received a telegram from Judge Sharkey, upon the subject stating that the "prospects are good."

President Johnson has had a semi-official statement published that he does not intend to connect himself with this last step in opposition to the Union, and it will be well for him that he does not.

HEAR REASON!

STRENGTHEN THE DEFENCES!

When a garrison apprehends an attack from an outside enemy, what does it do? It STRENGTHENS THE DEFENCES. The human system, at this period of the year, is being assaulted by morbid influences.—The atmosphere is full of them. Every change of weather lays the feeble open to their attacks. What is to be done in order to baffle these unseen, but ever active, foes? STRENGTHEN THE DEFENCES.—Do you ask how? The answer is simple—the means within the reach of all: Reinforce the vital organs and the nervous system with HOSTETTER'S BITTERS. Tone the stomach, regulate the bowels, rouse the sluggish liver, cheer the spirits, enrich and purify the vital current, with HOSTETTER'S BITTERS. That's the way to STRENGTHEN THE DEFENCES, and render the capital of health impregnable. If you wish to escape bilious head-ache, intermittent fever, indigestion, and nervous vicissitudes—to enjoy, in all its plentitude, the blessings of "a sound mind in a sound body," use this incomparable preventive and restorative. It preserves health in the healthy, and renews it in the weak and ailing. apr 2 sd3tawdk—2w

SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS.

A Certain Cure for Diseased Liver and the most Dangerous Maladies which are caused by a morbid condition of the organ.

To give the public a clear understanding of the mode in which SCHENCK'S Mandrake Pills produce those wonderful effects which are attested by thousands of reliable testimonials, we present a brief and its functions, which will make the operation of this popular medicine perceptible to every man's understanding.

The liver is supplied with blood vessels, nerves and absorbents. One of its obvious uses is to secrete and prepare the bile. It likewise filters the blood and separates that fluid from all impurities. How indispensably necessary to health is the proper performance of this function! If the liver is diseased it cannot purify the blood, and if that is sent back through the lungs, brain and other parts in a morbid condition, it must cause jaundice, biliousness, dyspepsia, derangement of the kidneys, gravel, and many other complaints more or less painful and dangerous, but the least of them quite enough to make a man sick and uncomfortable, and unfit for the performance of any of the duties of life. This unhealthy state of the system very often ends in pulmonary consumption.

The circulation of the blood is conducted in this manner:—The heart sends the vital current down through the arteries; it passes through the flesh, taking up all impurities in its progress; then the stream of blood flows backward through the veins, and passes to the liver to be purified. It is impossible to cure consumption, scrofula, or scarcely any other kind of chronic disease while that important organ, the liver, is diseased. It is for that reason that a regular physic and "rarely cure consumption.—They usually by purging, without the use of some rough medicine, the basis of which is morphine or opium in some shape, which locks up the liver instead of relaxing the secretions, giving a tone to the stomach, and producing a healthy flow of bile. Dr Schenck's will strengthen the system, purify the blood, and ripen and heal ulcers on the lungs.

A volume would be required, to give a brief account of the remarkable cures performed by Dr. Schenck's medicines, viz: Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills—all of which are accompanied by full directions for the use of them.

DR. SCHENCK will be professionally at his rooms every week, 52 Bond street, New York, and 38 Hanover street, Boston, from 9 A. M. until 3 P. M. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with the Respirometer the charge is five (5) dollars. His medicines are for sale by all druggists and dealers. Loyt's Illuminating Oil,

A NEW ILLUMINATING OIL.—The best and safest oil for burning in the household, is the new Illuminating Oil, secured to Mr. Edwin Loyt, of Stamford, by caveat filed at Washington. I advantageous over kerosene are at once apparent and those who are accustomed to burn kerosene will be glad to know that they will no longer be exposed to danger by its explosive nature. The new oil has neither smoke nor does it emit a disagreeable odor, and will give a more brilliant light than any other known chemical. We have seen it in use and would recommend some enterprising man to purchase the right for this vicinity.—Bridgeport Sandard.

[COPY.]

OFFICE OF STATE ASSAYER,

PORTLAND, ME., March 8th, 1867.

This is to certify that I have this day tested a sample of "Loyt's Improved Illuminating Oil." The Oil was created as in all other trials which I have made of similar substances.

At 110° flame was applied to the mouth of the tube, but there was not sufficient evolution of vapor to support combustion. At 150° the fluid was boiled in a very quiet manner and gently, and the vapors burned tranquilly and gently. The result of this test would indicate that the Oil in question is a safe preparation for use in families for household illumination.

—Rev. Mr. Underwood will preach in the First Parish Church Sabbath evening, at 7½ o'clock. Subject—"Christ the Mediator."

SPIRITUALISM Mrs. E. A. Bliss, Trance Medium, will speak at Pioneer Chapel, Sabbath afternoon and evening, and through April. Admission 5 cents.

—Attention is called to the certificate in special notice column relating to a case of treatment by Dr Jennings.

—Hon. John A. Peters arrived home from Washington on Wednesday evening, looking in excellent health.

—There will be an evening service at St. John's Church, French Street, to-morrow (Sunday, April 7th,) commencing at half past seven.

—In Police Court yesterday Charles Belcher and Wm. Montgomery, charged with assault and battery, were put under $800 bonds to appear at the Supreme Court.

—At a regular meeting of the Bangor Commercial Debating Club last Wednesday evening, it was voted to adjourn until the first Wednesday in October.

—Judge Appleton opened Court at Rockland on Wednesday. He remarked, in opening, (as we see from the Democrat of that city) that cases which had been in court ten years had been there about long enough.

CHANGE OF SABBATH SERVICES. At the second Baptist Church, Columbia Street, hereafter there will be preaching each Sabbath morning and afternoon, at the usual hours. Sunday School will meet after the morning service.

CHANGE OF TIME—SUMMER ARRANGEMENT. On and after to-morrow, the Sunday afternoon services in our churches will commence at 3 o'clock, instead of 2 as in the winter months. The bells will ring at a quarter before 3.

—A general revival time among the changes is going on in our State, and through the country at large. The religious papers say the work is perhaps not so demonstrative, but more deep than at some former times. Rev. Mr. Underwood has been laboring this week with the Congregational churches in this city.

—Mr. H. G. Coburn of Lincoln, one of the most energetic and influential men on the Penobscot north of Oldtown, has made arrangements with a firm in this city to travel through the middle and Western States, to introduce a new and valuable patent just issued.

—The annual session of the Grand Lodge of Maine I. O. of G. T. will be held at City Hall, Bangor, commencing on Tuesday next April 9th, at 9 o'clock A. M. There will also be a social meeting of the several lodges of Bangor, at the above named Hall, on Monday evening commencing at 7½ o'clock, to consider such measures as may be necessary in connection with the meeting of the Grand Lodge.

—A sort of a Calathumpian Band, or amateur troupe of Minstrels promenaded West Market Square and Broad Street on Fast Day evening—awakening unwonted echoes among the silent buildings—dying away at last in the region of the Masquerade Ball. This was all the excitement we witnessed for the day. The streets were generally quiet, liquor traffic effects were not to be seen, and the people were almost as sober and steady as the genius of the day is supposed to require. The Masquerade Ball, however, (at Spencer's,) is said to have been a brilliant and popular affair.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT. One of the younger clerks in the Post Office, William Cummings, met with a painful accident last evening, by which he may lose a part of his finger. While reaching into one of the high mail boxes, his foot slipped from the box on which he was standing, and one of his fore fingers caught upon a sharp hook upon which the mail bags were hung to be filled, and his whole weight came upon it—thus literally hanging him up by his finger pierced with the sharp hook. He had to be lifted off bodily before he could be extricated. He was taken home, and attended by Dr. Seavey.

—A cold rain from northeast prevailed yesterday without any very sensible effect upon the snow. Probably snow fell instead of rain in the northern part of the State. The weather of the past week has worked upon the ice a little, but with a scarcely perceptible effect. Good judges think it cannot leave the river before the middle of the month at least, and some not it as late as the 20th. "It all depends," however. Twenty-four hours of a warm heavy rain storm would probably clear it out in cracking style—but it would take three weeks of the present weather.

—Camden Harbor, a smart business place, has become a city by brevet—that is to say a "Village Corporation." The following are the first officers elected, as we learn from the Rock and Democrat; E. C. Fletcher, clerk; N. M. Wood, B. C. Adams and A. E. Clark, Fire Wardens; E. G. Knight, H. L. Cleveland and George W. Thorndike, Assessors; E. W. Gould, Collector. E. M. Wood, J. Huse, A. B. Wetherbee, A. E. Clark and T. R. Simonton were chosen a committee to draft By-Laws for the government of the corporation. The Board of Assessors take the place of "Mayor and Aldermen." They are to have police regulations and a police force.

—The Journal says that most of the mule spinners in the cotton mills at Lewiston declined on the 1st inst. to work over ten hours per day, and the agents have received orders to run eleven hours as usual or shut down the mills. In Lawrence and Manchester the spinners have concluded not to strike, and the Journal is persuaded that a strike, especially now when there is such a surplus of manufactured goods in the market and when the owners of mills are not very desirous of running, will result only in stopping all of the looms for several months.

—The Lewiston Journal says that the strike of mule spinners still continues. Some spinners remain in all the mills, and it is stated that others have returned to work. No other operatives have joined in the strike. A portion of the mules in all of the mills is running, and efforts are being made to supply the places of those who have left. Threats, it is said, have been made against those who continue at work, for which cause that about 100 mule spinners were on a strike in Lewiston.

—The American Law Review for April is received, through Messrs Bugbee & Co. It has the following table of contents:—The Laws of Sale. Delivery; John Marshall; Testimony of Persons accused of Crime; Legislative Control over Railway Charters; Law in Romance; Digest of the English Law Reports for November and December, 1866, and January, 1867; Selected Digest of State Reports; Book Notices; List of Law Books published in England and America since January 1, 1867; Summary of Events.

ACCIDENTS IN CAMDEN. A correspondent of the Rockland Democrat says a serious accident occurred last week in the Anchor Factory. Mr. Asa Andrews, while brushing cinders from the anvil, had a portion of his left hand crushed by the accidental falling of the trip hammer. Two of his fingers were so badly crushed as to render amputation necessary.

THE ANSWERED PRAYER.

BY REV. R. C. BOLLSTON.

I prayed for Beauty—for the magic spell
That binds the wisest with its potent thrall
That I within fond human hearts might dwell,
And shine the fairest in the festive hall.
I would have seen the loveliest bend the knee,
The loviest bow, o'ershamed by my charms;
While he I sought and vainly loved—so he,
Subdued, should clasp me fondly in his arms!

But Beauty o'er my spirit waved her wing,
Yet shed no lustrous ray on my form or face;
And passing years but darker shadows flung
Upon the school where care hath left its trace.
My prayer I heard in Heaven, half heard and half
No longer mourn bow hath crush my beauty's sway:
And, he I loved, now seeks a fairer bride,
With bright blushes and a smile more gay.

I prayed for Riches. O for lavish wealth,
To pour in gold showers on those I loved;
I would have gladly spent my youth and health,
Could I by gifts like these, my love have proved.
I prayed for riches, that before God's altars
I might with gifts and costly tribute bend;
And thought the treasures of Golconda's mine
Too poor to show the fervor of my soul.

Alas! wealth came not; and the liberal deeds
My heart devised, my hand must fail to do;
And though o'er prostrate truth my spirit bleeds,
In vain the aid of magic gold I woo.
The poor may plead to me for daily food,
And those I love in daily want may pine;
I will pour out for them my heart's warm blood,
But other gifts than this can ne'er be mine.

I prayed for Genius—for the power to move
Hard hearts, and reckless minds, and stubborn wills;
To execute the deeds of holy love,
And light Truth's fire upon a thousand hills.
I prayed for Eloquence to plead the cause
Of human rights and God's eternal grace;
To cry alone o'er Mercy's outraged laws,
And speed the great redemption of my race.

But all in vain. My feeble tongue can breathe
No portion of the fire that burns within
In vain my fancy vivid thoughts may wreathe,
In scorching flames to vanquish human sin.
Powerless my words upon the air float by,
And wrong and crime disdain the weak crusade;
While vice gleams on me its exultant eye,
And bids me show the conquest I have made.

I prayed for Peace—for strength to bear
The keen privations of my humble fate;
For patient faith to struggle with despair,
And shed a brightness o'er my low estate.
I prayed to be content with humble deeds,
With "widows mites," and humble charities,
To follow meekly where my duty leads,
Though through the lowliest vale of life it lies.

This prayer was answered: for a peace divine
Spread through the inmost depths of all my heart;
I felt that that same blessed lot was mine
Which fell on Mary, who chose the better part.
What though the world abroad ne'er hears my name?
What though no chains upon weak hearts I bind?
It is a happier lot than wealth or fame
To do my duty with a willing mind!

MR. NASBY DESIRES CONFIRMATION.

[We have a ready published a part of the following letter—but we know give it entire. It is too good to have any portion lost.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 15, 1867.

Washington again! What changes hev bin made in the last two years! Not in Washington, for this delitiful abode uv official purity hazn't changed a particle, nor never will. From the sumit uv Willard's Hotel I kin see now, ez I did a yeer ago, the same signs uv steamed oysters in front, the Capitle, towerin over the trees at the tother end uv the Avenoo, and, behind, the Patent Offis and Post Offis buildings, the last the Mecca uv every Dimokrat and the tother uv every Yankee who comes here. No! Washington aint changed, but I hev. Formerly when I visited Washington it was life times with me. Willard's wuz my hotel then ez now. Chadwick, him uv the towrin hito, rotund abdomen, side whiskers and round hat, wuz then, ez now, my landlord. In them days, before the happy return of A. Johnson to reason put sum thousands uv Democrats, who had more stumick than money, and more appetite than small change, into offis, and per consekence, into condition to pay their bills, I wuz a guest at this hotel; wich is to say, I slept on the steps uv the Capitol, and took or tried to take my meals at Chadwick's bountiful board. If I hed no currency I hed taste, and ez I wuz foraging for subsistence, I alluz made it a pint to forage on the richest paster fields. It's ez easy to cheek a first class dinner ez it is a second class, and besides, I felt that such a hotel ez Willard's wuz better able to stand sich boarders ez I wuz than them uv less patronage. I kept away from tother hotels out uv sympathy for the proprietors. Never shel I forget my last visit here. I had run the dinin-room guardian angel for a week, and wuz congratulatin myself on another week, at least, when Chadwick stopped me hisself, and the follerin conversation ensood:

'My frend,' sed he, in winnin tones.

'Davis, Garrot, is my name!' ez I prompt ly.

'We hear enuf,' sez he. 'Listen! I've let yoo run a week, coz it's my regler practis. Yoo hed a hungry look, but by this time yoo ought to be filled up and able to go at least a week without eatin. Ez yoo ain't uv no earthly youse to anybody, and make no pretensions to bein ornamental—git!' and three well-directed kicks landid me onto the side walk.

But I hev forgiven him. He treats me well. He hez confidence in me now, ez I hev paid my board in advance. It's a rool he hez, he jocosely remarked, with mean uv my pecoolier cast of countenance, to hev em pay in advance. He says it's much the best way. After payin, sich men ez me feel more comfortable about the house and so do the proprietors. It's me that's changed—I hev money to pay my bills. Bless the Lord for Seward, Johnson, Randall and other luxuries.

But pleasant ez it is to contrast my former position with my present proud one, I hev not time to dwell upon reminiscences. Life is short; I am a practical man, and tho it may be pleasant to linger for a moment onto mem'ry's pleasant fields I cannot. My biznis in Washington is precisely what every Democrat's biznis here is, to get confirmed. It aint no trouble for a Kentucky Dimocrat to git appointid, for the President hez so far relaxed his rules in this partikeler ez to appoint them ez wunt never in the Confederit army, but to git confirmed is the pinch. There's the gauntlet uv a Ablishn Senit to run, and good Lord wat a knowledge they hev uv the out-goins and in-comins uv appintees!

The President and Postmaster-General Randall wuz extremely anxious for my confirmashen, so much so, that they advised me to resort to the strategy now so common in the North.

'Go back on me for the time bein,' said that trooly great and good man who adorns the sofas in the Presidenshal Mansion. 'Wilcox em. That's yoor only bolt, Wilcox em. I advised him to do it, and see how it worked.'

'My dear sir,' said I, carried away by this new and unexpected developement uv greatness, 'Kin yoo bear to hev me who bears yoor banner in Kentucky bend the knee to an Ab idin Senit and repoodiate yoo, even for an hour? It is safe in my case, for my natural infinities are with yoo, but don't I beg of yoo, advise all uv em to do so. My dear yer, two-thirds uv em will go out for confirmashen, and, if successful, will forget to return.'

But the great and good Johnson wood take no denials. 'Draw up,' said he a letter to a conservative member uv Congress, explainin yoor connection with me, and—'

And overcum with emotion, he bust into tears.

Bein unable to take the task, and after four hours uv intense labor, the following was completed:

'Hon. ——— House uv Reps:

My dear Sir—My sonofamashen by the Senit uv the Yoonited States to the position uv Postmaster at the Confedrit X Roads, which is in the State uv Kentucky, bein confirmed by my operashens in the position, I resume the past two years, I hev the honor to explane that, notwithstanding the [illegible] I was a original Democrat, [illegible] I never took up arms for the government [illegible] served in the army [illegible] the gentle girl, writer to the [illegible] my school [illegible] Slander pollutes every [illegible] delay.

A LITTLE HERO. Grace Greenwood writes the following little story—and a true one it is—for the Little Pilgrim, a child's paper. She gets the facts from an incident described in the Hartford Daily Times, some years ago as having happened in Conn's Meadows.

In Hartford, Conn. lives the hero of the true history I am about to relate—but no longer "little," as the perilous adventure, which made him for the time famous in his native town, happened several years ago.

Our hero was then a bright active boy of fourteen—the son of a mechanic. In the severe winter of 18—, the father worked in a factory, situated little and a half from his home, and every day the boy carried his dinner across a wide piece of meadow land.

One frosty day as found the snow on this meadow strong to the foot step and no traces of the little foot path remaining. Yet he ran, [illegible] keeping himself warm by the most vigorous exercise, and brave, cheerful thoughts.

When in the middle of the meadow full half a mile from any house he noticed a little [illegible] delay.

[illegible]

glimmering in his career. I accompanied him on Ma—I will not say disgraceful, for he is my sovereign officer—tour through the Northern States, and sung my hat higher nor anybody else's at ale—I will not say drunken for reasons above mentioned—speeches, and abused the highly intelligent populace at Cleveland, Indianapolis, Springfield, and other pints in a manner with, now that I think on it, wuz truely shameful. Also I organized the Postmasters uv various Northern States into a Johnson party, and viggorously supported members uv Congress pledged to the policy uv which I wuz, at the time, a deceived supporter. About this time I wuz appointed Postmaster, and finding I needed confirmashun, my views underwent a Radikle change. Time and observashen hev taught me that insitid uv conciliashun, coersion is our best holt, and that now military measures are necessary in the South, until them rebellyus people completely acquiesce in the terms imposed by Congress for restorashen. My present views on this interesting topic is best defined by the recent speeches uv Hon. Charles Sumner, the eminent and trooly great Senator from the enlightened State uv Massachoosetts, and also by the recent utterances uv them lovable Representatives, Hon. Thadeus Stevens uv Pennsylvany, Hon. Geo. Benj F Butler uv Massachoosetts, and Hon. James M. Ashley uv Ohio, in a line uv whose sentiments, sich as they hev now, also them ez they hev allus had, as well ez them which they may hereafter hev, I most heartily and entirely concur.

With this explanashun, which I hope will prove satisfactory, and with the additional assurance that I am now a very warm supporter uv the congressional policy, and that when I look back and see what I hev done in the past two years, I so loathe myself that I kin hardly be restrained from suicidin, may I ask yoo to personally urge my confirmashun in the senit?

Trooly and Respectfully Yours,

PETROLEUM V. NASBY.

I read this epistle to A. Johnson, who wuz pleased to approve it, and also to Randall, who wuz delighted with it, and to Wellse, who, after forcing me to read it twice over, wanted to know if it had anything to do with the Navy Department, and then returned into the President with my mind fully made up that I never would send that document.

'Wat!' said he, startin back astonished. 'Not send it?'

Never! sed I, never! Such things may do for Postmasters and Assessors with yoo took from the Republican ranks, but hit from me. I have done many things wich perhaps wooden't hold out 100 lbs. to the bushel—voted for Pierce and also for Buchanan, and supported em in all their various doins, besides other mean things too tejious to mention, but my sensitive soul recoils at this, my proud stumick revolts. I leave it for your Custers and Wilcoxes and sich, no Kentucky Dimocrat kin. Let em refuse to confirm me at their peril. I am the only Dimokrat in ten miles who kin write, and they dare not by turnin me out, deprive Kentucky, which never seceded, uv mail facilities.

'Brave man!' said Johnson, in a husky voice, and his eyes suffused with tears, fallin onto my neck and weepin profoosely down my back, clot em his yoo. If they do, I pledge you my word, that you shel hev a partnership with Mrs. Cobb, or Mrs. Perry, which is worth a score uv Post Offices.

I hev alluz noticed that virchoo is its own reward. By bein trooly wat a fool is now open to me! Let the Senit do its worst.

PETROLEUM V. NASBY, M. P.

(Which is Postmaster,) and likewise Professor uv Biblikle Politicks in the Southern Classikle & Military Institoot.

ASCENT OF ORIZABA. A correspondent of the New Orleans Picayune writes an account of the adventures of a party who attempted, in January last, to reach the top of Orizaba. His description is vivid and interesting, closing thus:

"We were now nearly sixteen thousand feet above sea level. Distinctly, as if at our elbow, the sound of the guide's feet striking the solid drift, one thousand feet away, fell upon the ear. Evidently the Indian pilots did not count upon our advancing so far, became alarmed and indicated a wish to return. But General S——urged them forward, taking himself a narrow conical ledge, pushed after towards the summit.

'Two-thirds of our party were out of sight down the slope; three alone beside the affrighted guides held their way. Blood oozed from ears and nostrils and mouth, and veins stood out on the forehead like great black lines. Our footing became more and more uncertain; the ascent more abrupt; the stones constantly turning and crumbling away, and betimes huge masses of earth and boulders and scoria, loosened by the melting snow, came thundering and hissing from above, fairly flying past our heads, on to the next projecting ledge, and great snowdrifts, broken and crumbled by the colliding rocks, avalanched down upon our heads a perfect storm of snow and icicles and black earth and lava dust. One of the guides, smitten by the passing drift, rolled, half-dead three hundred feet down the slope, and was buried for a while in the debris of snow and earth. Colonel C——, a West Pointer, was thoroughly exhausted, and made as inconsecutive speeches as a toper in his last struggles to maintain consciousness. His broken sentences, low and indistinct, were indicative of scenes on the Chickahominy, mustering squadrons in cold weather. Down the mountain side, almost under the clouds, lay our English friends, completely demoralized, and seemingly discussing on a lava rock sundry bottles of cognac, unconscious of the dangers threatening their fellow voyagers in their perilous journey on the treacherous cliffs above. The miniature cascades disappeared; even the drippings disappeared from the rocks; for we had passed the line of thaw. Snow was beaten down hard and compact, and glistened like ice as the sun fell upon it. But an abundance of loose rocks lay on the surface, poised for motion at the slightest touch. The guide started more than once as he picked his way some distance in front. We heard by the footfalls that the courageous S——was pushing on. He was within five hundred feet of the top, turning into a shallow gulley to avoid the falling boulders, when a sliding, tumbling noise was heard, then a heavy dull click, then a fall, and in a moment a heavy boulder came whizzing by on its downward course. Some one called out, 'S——has fallen!' The rock struck him on the shoulder, breaking it, and hurled him a hundred feet down the steep gulley. The guide reached him soon after, and we bore him slowly down the steep slope, abandoning for the time our enterprise.'

During the war with Mexico a South Carolina officer undertook this ascent. He fell paralyzed at a height of 15,000 feet. A flagstaff was erected on the spot, which was still standing at the last ascent.

CONSTITUTION
LIFE SYRUP.

A positive and specific remedy for all diseases originating from an IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD, and for all (hereditary) DISEASES transmitted from PARENT TO CHILD.

SCROFULA,
GLANDULAR SWELLINGS,
STRUMA, KING'S EVIL,
ULCERATION, SALT RHEUM
ERYSIPELAS,

This taint (HEREDITARY and ACQUIRED,) filling life with untold misery, is by all usual medical remedies incurable.

RHEUMATISM.

If there is any disease in which the Constitution Life Syrup is a sovereign, it is in rheumatism and its kindred affections. The most intense pains are almost instantly alleviated—enormous swellings are reduced. Cases, chronic or vicarious, of twenty or thirty years standing have been cured.

NERVOUSNESS.

Nervous Debility, Shattered Nerves,
St. Vitus' Dance, Loss of Power,
Confusion of Thoughts, Epilepsy.

Thousands who have suffered for years will bless the day on which they read these lines. Particularly to weak, suffering women will this medicine prove an inestimable blessing—directing their footsteps to a Hope which fulfills more than in promise.

MERCURIAL DISEASES.

Salivation, Rotting of Bones,
Bad Complexion, Aches in Bones,
Feeling of Weakness, Depression of Spirits.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP purges the system entirely from all the evil effects of MERCURY, removing the Bad Breath, curing the Weak Joints and Rheumatic Pains which the use of Calomel is sure to produce. It hardens Spongy Gums and secures the Teeth as firmly as ever.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP

Eradicates, root and branch, all Eruptive Diseases, of the Skin like

ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES,

and all other difficulties of this kind, which so much disfigure the outward appearance of both males and females, often making them a disgusting object to themselves and their friends.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP

CURES ALL SWELLING OF THE GLANDS,

Either of the Face, Neck, or Female Breast, and should be taken as soon as the swelling is detected, thus preventing their breaking, and producing troublesome Discharging Sores, which disfigure so many of the younger portion of the community, from six to twenty years of age. Young children are very subject to Discharges from the Ears, which depends upon a Scrofulous constitution. These cases soon recover by taking a few doses of the Life Syrup.

All scrofulous persons suffering from general Debility, Emaciation, Dyspepsia and Dropsey of the limbs, abdomen, and in the female, Dropsey of the ovaries and womb, generally accompanied with inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, are permanently cured by Constitution Life Syrup. The disease known as Goitre or Swelled Neck, the Life Syrup will remove entirely. The remedy should be taken for some time, as the disease is exceedingly chronic and stubborn, and will not be removed without extra effort.

Tumors of the Ovaries, Tumors of the Breast, and swelling of other glands of the body, will be completely reduced without resorting to the knife, or operations of any kind.

Epileptic Fits, Sympathetic or Organic Disease of the Heart, as palpitation, Disease of the Valves drowning a grating or filing sound, Dropsey of the Heart Case and all the affections of this important organ (persons suffering from any acute pain in the region of the heart, will be greatly relieved by Constitution Life Syrup.

BROKEN DOWN AND DELICATE CONSTITUTIONS SUFFERING FROM INDISPOSITION TO EXERTION, PAIN IN THE BACK, LOSS OF MEMORY, FORBODINGS, HORROR OF GALAMITY, FEAR OF DISEASE, DIZZINESS OF VISION, DIM, HOT SKIN AND EXTREMITIES, WANT OF SLEEP, RESTLESSNESS, PALE, HAGGARD COUNTENANCE, AND LASSITUDE OF THE MUSCULAR SYSTEM, all require the aid of the CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

FOR ALL FORMS OF
Secretive Diseases,
Either of the Nose, Throat, Tongue, Spine, Forehead or Scalp, no remedy has ever proved its equal.

MOTH PATCHES upon the female face depending upon the diseased action of the liver, are very unpleasant to the young wife and mother. A few bottles of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP, will correct the secretion, and remove the deposit which is directly under the sk
